SMITHSONIAN TOURS PLANNED

The National Museum of History and Technology and our Center for Continuing Education will be sponsoring four interpreted tours during the next month. The dates and programs are as follows:

- October 30.....A Museum Highlight Tour
- November 1.....Colonial Experience: A Look at Pre-Revolutionary Lifestyles
- November 15.....A Museum Highlight Tour
- November 20.....We the People: An Exciting New Bicentennial Exhibit

All those interested in participating are asked to meet at the College Auditorium at 11 a.m. on the tour dates. The Gallaudet bus will leave promptly at 11 a.m. for the Smithsonian. The bus will return at approximately 1:15 p.m.

If you prefer to drive, please meet the tour group at 11:30 a.m. in front of the Star Spangled Banner on the second floor of the museum. Since parking is very limited, people are encouraged to use the bus transportation furnished by the College.

AMONG OURSELVES

--Mervin Garretson, who has been principal of MSSD for the past five years, will assume the new position of assistant to the dean for planning and dissemination.

This new position will support the expanded role and responsibilities of the dean for Pre-College Programs, Doin Hicks.

--Kieth Wright assumed his new duties as acting director of MSSD last week. Since the opening of MSSD, Doin Hicks has served in the dual capacity as both dean of Pre-College Programs and director of MSSD.

--After nearly ten months of association with the Student Health Services, Henry Wyatt has been named medical director. Prior to joining the Gallaudet staff, he served as medical officer, Mental Health Program for the Deaf, St. Elizabeths Hospital. The College community will have an opportunity to meet our new medical director on Wednesday, October 22, from 3-5 p.m. in the Student Union Lounge. All are welcome.

--Kevin Casey has been elected chairperson of the D.C. Chapter of the Computer Society of the Institute for Electrical and Electronic Engineers. The D.C. Chapter of IEEE has more than 900 members.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Volunteers are needed at the College in the following areas:
. Staffing the Look of Sound Exhibit now under construction in Chapel Hall
. Scouting programs at Kendall
School
. Assisting deaf-blind adults in programs conducted by the Center for Continuing Education
If you have friends or relatives who would be interested in giving some volunteer time to the College, please ask them to contact Judy Bortner in the Office of Alumni and Public Relations.

UPCOMING WORKSHOPS

The campus community is reminded that two workshops of general interest are coming up in the next few weeks.

This Saturday, October 25, the Office of Educational Technology will be sponsoring an all day program on the resources of the department and how they can be utilized in the development of instructional materials.

Next Thursday and Friday,

October 30 and 31, the second in a series of three symposia on research at Gallaudet will take place. The topic will be "Language and Communication Research Problems."

The proceedings from the first symposium, "Cultural and Social Orientation Research Problems," are available from Clarence Williams.

BE SURE NOT TO MISS...

Too Late," two captioned movies to be shown at the Arlington County Public Library, 1015 North Quincy Street, on October 30, at 7:30 p.m.

REMINDER

Several weeks ago we reported the establishment of an information and answering service for the deaf community run by the Telephone Pioneers of America. Hearing impaired people in the Washington area are encouraged to use this new service which is in operation from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. If you need to call your doctor, get an estimate on a car repair, have a question about your phone bill just TTY 347-9172 and a Telephone Pioneer volunteer will make the voice call for you.
